Provincial Elections to be Held June 7th

FRED DUNCAN NOMINATED IN
E. EDMONTON

Enthusiastic Convention Returns President of Assn.
As Choice.

NOMINATION WAS MADE UNANIMOUS

Speeches By Premier Sifton
and Ministers Express Confidence.

Frederick Duncan was nominated by the Liberals of the Edmonton riding to be their candidate in the forthcoming provincial election, at the convention held last night in Albion hall.

There were 147 delegates present when Mr. Duncan, as president of the East Edmonton Liberal association, called to order. No time was lost in getting down to business and after the appointment of credentials and resolutions committees, nominations were called for by the chair.

The attorney general was proposed by P. D. Magrath, and Mr. MacKay was nominated by A. R. McLennan, but both, as has been said, took the platform and said that they could not accept the honor of nomination after the previous pledge made to their supporters in their present constituencies.

Mr. Duncan was put in nomination by A. R. McLennan, seconded by W.
T. Todd, as a man equally well known, equally capable, an old resident, who had always worked industriously and well for the party, who possessed the confidence and respect of the working men. After he had been nominated and had accepted, he vacated the chair, which was filled for the rest of the evening by Hon. A. G. MacKay.

The two candidates made brief speeches. Mr. Magrath criticized recent utterances of Mr. Ramsey, the conservative candidate, respecting the
A. & G. W. railway affair and accused the opposition of trying to steal the Liberal doctrine of "honesty and good government." Mr. Duncan appealed for votes for the candidate who, in the judgment of the delegates, would get the most votes on election day.
He charged the conservative candidate with having organized the movement to go to the legislative assembly and to endeavor to defeat the factious act.

When the result of the balloting was announced, Mr. Magrath moved to make it unanimous, and Mr. Duncan made another speech, of acceptance this time, in which he asked the support of every elector in the district.

The Premier Well Received.

GRANT HALL
PEACEMAKER

Vice President C.P.R. At Calgary.
—Miners May Get 30 P.C.
Increase.

CALGARY, Alta., May 14.—That work will be resumed at the mines in the district with an increase on a 30 per cent basis to all men, is now looked on as quite possible. This miners' policy committee meeting today with Grant Hall, vice-president of the C. P. R., at the hotel, and promised to the men of a temporary working basis on the 30 per cent increase, and also stated that he would have a meeting of the coal operators as soon as these men could be gotten together for a further conference. He gave the impression that such an arrangement would hold good pending further negotiations and urged strongly the resumption of work by the miners. Mr. Hall's interview with the representatives of the mine workers has given a more favorable appearance to the situation and he has requested the committee to remain in the city until he has arranged a meeting with the operators.

Writs Issued Yesterday;
Nominations on May 31,
Polling One Week Later

In Eleven of 58 Constituencies No Election Will Be Held, Soldier Representatives In Present Legislature Being Declared Re-Elected —Athabasca and Peace River Elections Deferred—Soldiers Will Select Their Own Representatives.

Writs were issued yesterday for general provincial elections.
Nominations will take place on Thursday, May 31st, and polling one week later, Thursday, June 7th.

In eleven of the 58 constituencies of the province, which includes the two new seats for soldiers, no election will be held, the soldier representatives in the present legislature being declared re-elected for the ensuing term by the act passed at the recent session of the House. Twelve constituencies were included in the list named in the act, but Lieut. Stauffer having been killed in action subsequently, an election will be held in the Didsbury riding.

The members elected are Major James Lowery, Capt. Eaton, Colonel Stewart, Colonel Nelson Spencer, Gordon Macdonald, Capt.
Pingle, Lieut. J. G. Turgeon, Lieut. R. Campbell, Lieut. F. A.
Walker, Capt. George Hudson, Lieut. Shandro.

Elections in the Athabasca and Peace River constituencies are deferred. Writs for elections in these constituencies will be issued today and nomination and polling days fixed by the returning officers.

Appended is a list of the constituencies in which elections will be held on June 7th, with the names of the returning officers. John A. Reid, agent of the province in London is returning officer for the elections to be held overseas. John D. Hunt, clerk of the executive council is returning officer to arrange for the taking of the votes of members of the military or naval forces who are absent from their homes on military duty, but still in the province. The votes of these soldiers will be counted as having been cast in the constituencies in which they reside when at home.

RUSSIA IS IN A DANGEROUS
POSITION NOW

Russian Minister of Justice
Confesses He Fears Disaster.

TASTED FREEDOM;
ARE INTOXICATED

Alarming Diagnosis of Russia's Internal Crisis Made.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PEROGRA, May 15.—(Delayed) In an impassioned appeal to delegates from the front in the meeting at Petrograd today, Capt. A. F. Kerenky, minister of justice, has made the most alarming diagnosis of Russia's internal crisis which has come from any official person since the revolution. The minister of justice, who heretofore had made only the most optimistic and reassuring declarations, confessed this confidence had left him and he feared disaster.

Sorry Didn't Die
"I came to you," said M. Kerenky, "because my strength is at an end. I no longer feel my former courage nor have my former conviction that we are conscientious citizens, not slaves in revolt. I am sorry I did not die two months ago, when the dream of a new life was glowing in the hearts of a Russian people, when I was sure the country could govern itself without the war. As affairs are going now it will be impossible to save the country. Perhaps the time is near when we will have to tell you that we can no longer give you the bread you expect, or other supplies on which we have a right to count. The process of the change from slavery to freedom is not going on properly. We have lost freedom and are slightly intoxicated, but what we need is sobriety and discipline."

Not Alone in Opinion
M. Kerenky's declaration, though a trifle more outspoken in its pessimism than the utterances of other officials, is not unrepresentative of public opinion in Petrograd at the present time. Unless there is a quick infusion of a new spirit in the army, and a new understanding of freedom among the masses, and unless the energy which is now being used to bring about peace is transformed into energy working for the defence of the country, it is generally felt that Russia will not be able to go on with the war.

Russian Navigation—Report
From Rome.
(Rome, May 14.—The Italian Nationalist, the organ of the Nationalist party, prints a report from diplomatic quarters that Turkey has made overtures to Russia, through a neutral source, for a separate peace on the basis of the complete opening of the straits to Russian navigation, both for war and merchant vessels. According to this report, Turkey also declares her disposition to give friendly consideration to the Armenian question and suitable recognition to the principle of nationalities.

REGINA, May 14.—Between $40,000 and $50,000 will be expended in military district No. 12 by the Dominion military hospital commission, according to Major Ashton, commander of Unit H. Regiments, in an official visit of Lieut. Col. W. Rowley, member of the military hospital commission, Ottawa. Accompanying Col. Rowley were Lieut. Col. Whitley, Col. F. W. Cooke and W. J. Bower, assistant officer in charge of works of the Dominion commission. Another military hospital will be authorized in this district. Prince Albert is making a strong bid for the building and it is probable the unit will be located in that city.

Russians Are in Retreat

Scene of Most Desperate Fighting During Past Month Is Now In British Possession—Russians In Mesopotamia Retreat Across
Diala River Before Superior Turkish Forces.—French Artillery
Very Active.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, May 14.—The British troops have occupied all of the village of Roex, according to the official report from headquarters in France tonight, and have made some advance north of Gavrelle. The text of the statement reads: "Our troops today continued their progress north of the Scarpe River and completed the capture of Roex, taking a few prisoners. The whole village of Roex, which was defended by the enemy with the greatest determination and has been the scene of most desperate fighting during the past month, is now in our possession. Our lines were advanced slightly during the day north of Gavrelle."

French Artillery Active.

PARIS, May 14.—The official statement from the war office tonight reads: "In the course of the day the German artillery violently counter-shelled, bombarded the front north of Braye-En-Laonnois and Cerny. Quite lively artillery actions took place east of Berry-Au-Bac and in Champagne, in the region of Montout. "On the heights of the Meuse an enemy attempt against one of our small posts in the Bois des Chevaliers was easily repulsed. "There was no important event to report on the rest of the front. "On May 12 and 13, six enemy aeroplanes were brought down. It is confirmed that another German machine crashed to the earth on May 11 after an engagement. Our bombing squadron dropped 4,000 kilos of explosives on stations and bivouacs behind the German front. "Belgian communication: There was artillery activity on both sides at various points on the Belgian front, particularly in the region of Dixmude."

Russians Forced To Retreat.

PETROGRAD, May 14, via London.—Russian reverses on the Caucasian and Mesopotamian fronts are reported today by the war office. The statement follows: "On the Russo-Galician and Roumanian fronts the usual rifle firing, scouting reconnaissances and aerial operations occurred. "On the Caucasian front, south of Erzingan, near Mount Kelerkani, one of our companies was repulsed by the Kurds after a stubborn fight. An attempted attack by the Kurds near Belumer, south-east of Erzingan, was repulsed. "In Mesopotamia our detachments, under the pressure of superior Turkish forces, retired to the left bank of the River Diala. "In the direction of Kovel, our artillery brought down a German airplane within the enemy's lines."

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
QUEBEC, May 14.—Right Hon. Sir Robert Borden, premier of Canada, returned to Quebec today, after a party of officials returned from the Imperial War Council. Sir Robert, who has been here for three months attending the Imperial war conference in England, returned to Canada today. Just after his arrival, queried by the correspondent, Sir Robert said that he regretted he would not be able to make any statement concerning the Imperial war conferences until he reached Ottawa. He spent only a short time in Quebec before taking a special train over the Intercolonial Railway for the capital.

NAVAL REFORM
IS NOW FA

Sir Edward Carson Annou-Appointment of Naval Board.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, May 14.—Naval reform long demanded by public opinion, which is the direct outcome of submarine menace, was announced parliament today by Sir Edward Carson, first lord of the admiralty, taking the shape of giving to the admiralty a stronger board for the navy than the committee imperial defense does for the navy. The admiralty board has been hampered by heavy administrative duties concerning construction and supply, which interfered with its best attention to fighting side of the navy. This now to be remedied. The new board consists of Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, Admiral Sir Henry Oliver, Admiral Alexander L. Duff, Admiral Halsey, Sir Eric Campbell Geddes and H. D. Toddhill. Sir Eric Geddes, the new chief of the board, with temporary rank of vice-admiral, has previously been in charge of all communications and supplies of war material in France, where he performed valuable work. He will now take similar work for the fleet, will control all shipbuilding and repairs for the admiralty. This relieves the naval member of the board of a great load of administrative work and enable them to devote themselves entirely to the fighting side of the fleet, especially the submarine menace.

OTTAWA, May 14.—In answer to question by Fred Pardee, member for West Lambton in the house today, the minister of militia gave out information concerning answers received from the national service cards. The total number of replies secured was 1,544,366. Classified as "military prospects" the totals were as follows: Between 17 and 30 years of age, male and no dependents, 58,597; between 17 and 30, single with no dependents, 13,624; 31 to 45, single with no dependents, 17 to 45, single with dependents, 17 to 45, married with dependents, 92,469; 17 to 45, married with dependents, 92,469; 17 to 45, married with dependents, 92,469. The statement declared that the three male population might be considered agricultural prospects, 184 had given their trade as shipbuilding while 3,010 men had declared the selves as tool makers, tool setters, and many of these had been employed in this service since sending in the cards.

Value of School Lands
In answer to a question by W. Buchanan, Leithbridge, the minister the interior stated that the approximate value of school lands in Manitoba was $63,948,800; in Saskatchewan $44,310,000, and in Alberta $3,948,000. The principal money credit of the school lands fund March 31, last, were: Manitoba, 968,350; Saskatchewan $3,891,343; Alberta, $3,099,222. A statement being prepared to be deferred to the next session of the legislature. The approximate area of school lands unsold in Manitoba is 7,321 acres. In Saskatchewan, 7,707 acres, and in Alberta 7,114,147 acres. In answer to a question by Hon. Frank Cochrane said that an announcement as to the government policy would be made shortly. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that he in agreement with the bill. He went on to say that the government was maintaining the Grand Trunk Pacific way west of Edmonton. First taking up the main line. It was said that no harm could be done passing the bill pending the government's announcement.

IMPERIAL OIL COMPANY IS SEEKING OIL IN VIKING FIELD

Geologists Are Making Investigation of Conditions in District Where Northern Alberta Gas Development Co. Are Drilling For Gas to Supply Edmonton—Gas Flowing Freely in Each of Wells Already Sunk.

Prospects found by geologists of the Imperial Oil Co., Ltd., in the neighborhood of Viking, Alberta, where they are now investigating, point to the opening up of a large oil field in that district. Gas in large quantities as is well known has been found and as soon as pipes are obtained Edmonton can have all the gas she wants. The Northern Alberta Gas Development Co., which holds the franchise from the city can now supply over 20,000,000 feet a day, which amount is called for in a contract with the city. This amount is available from the eight wells which they have sunk.

FARMHOUSE OF J. A. SANGSTER, CONJURING CREEK, IS DESTROYED

Family Make Their Hurried Escape While Flames Are Roaring Around Them—Neighbors Are Called on Rural Telephones and by Their Aid Large Barn, Nearby, is Saved.

Fire from an unknown cause, starting in a beam-toe of the house in which they had not been for some time previously, destroyed the farm house of John A. Sangster, postmaster at Conjugating Creek in the early hours of Monday morning. Mr. Sangster, Mrs. Sangster and her mother, an old lady of about eighty years were able to escape with their lives but practically none of the contents of the house were saved.

While the rest of the family were sleeping, the old lady was awakened by the cracking and gave the alarm. While the women made their rapid exit from the burning building, Mr. Sangster, without taking time to get his clothes, hurried to the telephone exchange which was in the house and called several of his neighbors on the rural telephone lines. The fire spread quickly and he was not able to call them all. Those who heard hurried to his help. Some of them were on the scene within twenty minutes. By their strenuous efforts the large barn was saved. The loss of the house and contents will total about $2,500.

The family have a son Pte. Walter Sangster, who is in the Canadian army. Canadian army. Mrs. Sangster was operated on recently, at an Edmonton hospital, for appendicitis, and the alarm of the fire and the narrow escape from being burnt in the house, is apt to be detrimental to her health under the circumstances.

Mr. Sangster has a 480-acre farm about 14 miles west of Leduc and is one of the pioneers of the Conjugating Creek settlement. He has been postmaster since the post office was established and hurried to the telephone line was installed the exchange was located at his place.

Upon hearing of the fire the provincial telephone out to establish a temporary exchange for the rural telephone lines of the district.

City Property Suffers
Property belonging to the city of Edmonton has been included in the epidemic of fires that has been raging during the past few days, due mainly to the high winds prevailing—and human carelessness.

On Saturday the dwelling house and buildings of the Rist farm on the south side belonging to the city were totally destroyed by fire, also a stable. The whole, however, was covered by insurance, the house carrying $900 and the stable $200. The Rist farm is the location of the city incinerator. It is said that the fire was caused by human carelessness.

How Fires Spread
How carelessness does enter into a located, has been of a very high quality, although no great flow has been released. All indications, it is asserted, point to a large oil bed in that district. The difficulty which the company has by the wind, rather than by the gas to the city. The pipes have been on order for some time but owing to the war nearly all the foundries are working on munitions. It is understood that the pipes were ordered from Toledo, Ohio.

Four or five firms are preparing for oil development in Viking, and have large capital backing them. The majority of the money comes from Calgary, Toronto, New York and Toledo.

The Collier Oil Co., Ltd. in which Calgary interests are connected, is composed largely of interests in Viking.

great many of these outbreaks was instigated on Friday evening when the windstorm broke over the city. Then the casual observer could have seen ashes thrown down the river bank at the back of Jasper avenue, fanned in flame by the wind, rather than blown into the flames, and then, still blazing, was carried on by the wind into the backyards and outbuildings.

MOTORISTS TO PLAY BALL ON CLUB RUN

Interesting Program For Trip to Ft. Saskatchewan—Contest For Ladies as Well

The Automobile Club, at its luncheon meeting Monday endorsed the suggestion of the executive committee to hold a country run on Saturday, May 19th to Fort Saskatchewan. The members of the club, with their ladies and friends, will gather at 104th street north of Jasper avenue, at 1:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon, and the parade will start at 2 o'clock sharp, the route being east on Jasper avenue and over the east end bridge, the road through Clover Bar being taken. A stop will be made at the Bremner home at Clover Bar, and it is expected that the Fort will be reached about 4 o'clock, when a baseball tournament will engage the attention of the male members of the party, the arrangements for this feature being in the hands of J. C. Sherry and C. E. Darby. J. W. Connelly is in charge of a program of automobile races. For the ladies it is expected that there will be a golf driving contest, for which a prize will be offered.

Tea will be served in the Fort Agricultural grounds by the ladies of the tour, the proceeds to be devoted to Red Cross funds.

Returning the north road will be taken, and it is expected that the party will reach Edmonton about nine o'clock.

President Brookbank will lead the parade, and P. G. McDermid will bring up the rear, and will take care of any troubles which may develop during the trip.

SHOT THROUGH HAND

J. F. Thieme, a farmer living a short distance outside of St. Albert, was shot through his right hand on Sunday from a revolver which he was holding, the bullet penetrating a short distance into his leg. He was brought to the General Hospital. His wounds are not serious.

"CANADIANS ARE DOING GREAT WORK"

Here is a characteristic bit from a soldier's letter, written by Pte. Alec Buchart, of the machine gun section of the 63rd battalion, to his aunt, Mrs. P. Earl, of 11448 86th st., Edmonton:

"The Canadians are doing great work out here. We are making our own little rattle some. The war will soon be over if we keep coming the way we have been. I will be home soon. This dodging shells ain't up to much."

FIRM CHANGES NAME

The firm name of Young & Kennedy Co., as it now is at 1908 1/2 Jasper avenue, will be changed to E. N. Kennedy, successor to Young & Kennedy Co. Mr. Young has no connection with the firm for about two years, and last September he took over the Calgary branch of the business.

THE EAST AND WEST WANT LOCAL GOODS

Edmonton Manufacturer Receives Orders From Ontario and B.C. In Same Mail.

Edmonton-made goods are gaining a continent-wide market apparently. Yesterday H. V. Shaw, proprietor of the Edmonton Cigar factory, received orders in the same mail from Chesherville, Ont., and Creston, B. C. There are not many manufacturers, even in the industrial centers in the east, which can boast of a record equal to this, and it is evidence of a practical appreciation of the excellence of the product of the local factory, which will be gratifying alike to the men who will benefit directly and to the body of citizens generally, who are interested in the upbuilding of the community from an industrial standpoint.

WHEAT ACREAGE IN NORTHERN ALBERTA IS NOT INCREASED

Fine Weather of Past Week Bringing Growth Along Fast Says C.P.R. Man

"The acreage of wheat sown this year in Northern Alberta will be about the same as last year. If this nice weather continues the prospects for this year's crop will be very encouraging and the crop will come along fast," said Mr. C. LeDuc, Norwood, land agent of the Department of Natural Resources, of the C.P.R., to a Bulletin reporter on Monday morning.

Mr. Norwood, during the past week has spent several days in the district surrounding Marvill, and speaks very encouragingly of crop outlook there. He saw a number of fields of wheat already showing green. The farmers there are about finished sowing wheat, and a number of them have nearly finished putting in their oats.

In Mr. Norwood's opinion the reason there is no increase in the acreage of wheat this year is because the weather conditions of last fall did not allow the farmer sufficient time to do any extra plowing.

Many citizens of the United States are coming to Canada, and particularly to Northern Alberta to seek homesteads and purchase farms. Some of them are going to district lying east of Edmonton and many to the Peace River district. On Monday six applications were filed with the C.P.R. from Washington, New Hampshire, Oregon and Montana.

City Hall Notes

An application from the 142nd street Community League to have 9th avenue (McKay) opened up for traffic was considered by the city commissioners at their meeting on Monday afternoon and the matter was referred to the city engineer for a report.

The league asked that the avenue be brushed and the holes filled up between 142nd and 149th streets, and it was stated that the improvement was much needed, to connect with the considerable amount of traffic into Jasper place. The old trail now used was said to be in a bad condition, making access most difficult.

Chief of Police Hill furnished a report on the subject of cattle straying at Elm Park, of which there have been complaints. Cattle owners in the neighborhood have been interviewed by the police and informed that animals must be kept within bounds, and assurances have been given that this shall be done.

A report was received from the city clerk on the property taken over from the village of West Edmonton, and it was arranged that Mayor Henry should take a trip to the place and interview the late village officials.

The question of installing yard hydrants for the supply of water in certain districts was considered, and a health officer had furnished a report on the matter, in which he recommended that the hydrants should be given under conditions where they were not likely to develop proper installations of sewer and water. The commissioners decided to send the matter to the council for a ruling.

The Alberta Cast Stone Co. offered to make a bid for a trenching machine owned by the city and the application was sent to the city engineer for report.

Superintendent Ormsby, of the electric light and power department, says that at some time in the future in congested districts of the city the present system of wiring will have to be changed for the underground method. He considers that a certain percentage of the surplus earned by the department should be set aside for the eventual carrying out of this work. The question was referred to the mayor, who will go into the subject along with Superintendent Ormsby.

ONE MAN CAR SYSTEM WILL BE EXTENDED

Highlands-Bonnie Doon Line Will Be Next To Try Economy Operation.

The next street car route to be operated on the one-man system is that from the Highlands to Bonnie Doon. The Utilities Committee had a meeting Monday afternoon, when along with Commissioner Harrison, they went into the subject of the further operation of one-man cars, and considered a report furnished by Superintendent Moir, of the street railway department, as to the direction in which future development of the method could be made.

At present one-man cars are running on two routes, at Calder and Spruce ave., but these were only tentative propositions in order to test out the working, and the superintendent points out that to be of real saving to the city, the most additional use of the system. In the statement submitted by him he considers the eventual use of one-man cars on all routes in the city, save one, the route from North Edmonton to 124th street. The present total wage bill for motormen and conductors is $441.44 per day, and under the one-man system the daily wage bill would be reduced to $258.70, meaning a saving of $182.74 per day, or, rounded off, $36,000 per year.

The committee, after considering the different routes, decided that the next trial should be given to the Highlands to Bonnie Doon line, the main reason for this being that it operates through the city practically from end to end, and would give a good test to the effectiveness of the system.

There is one point that the public may well bear in mind with regard to the proposed change. There will be no lessening of the service, either in time or regard to the number of cars. On the contrary it will rather be the other way about, because if the operation proves satisfactory, more cars will be put on in order to give the quick service that the public may ask for along any particular routes.

MAN'S BODY IS FOUND IN ASHES OF FARM SHACK

Inquest at Homestead of Peter Caspar, Eight Miles North of Magnolia

A pile of charcoal in one corner of the debris and a small portion of a human body on a bed in the remains of a shack that was occupied by Peter Caspar, a Sturgeon, were found by eight miles north of Magnolia, is believed by the provincial police to indicate that these men were both burned to death last Wednesday when the shack was destroyed by fire. At first only the remains of one man were found by the neighbors, and it was thought that one of the men had been killed by the fire and the other had escaped.

A portion of the charcoal is being analyzed to make sure whether it is human remains or not. If it proves to be human, it would appear, that the man Prouse is at large, and further investigation will be made.

Both these men were about fifty years of age and came to this homestead about three years ago from the United States. Caspar is admitted to have been out of his mind and was being taken care of by Prouse. The neighbors, in giving evidence at the inquest Sunday were definite in stating that the men had been very friendly towards each other.

While working in his field about a mile away a farmer named Runney, noticed the shack burning about eight o'clock Wednesday morning but the neighbors, who were nearby, could be done to save the occupants.

From the position in which the body of Caspar was found it would appear that he was still in bed when the fire started and was not able to rise. A portion of the roof falling on him suffocated a portion of his body so that it could be identified. This homestead was being conducted by Prouse.

The verdict of the coroner's jury, which was convened by Dr. Carthew of Wabamun will be given this afternoon.

LIBRARY LOANED 19,737 BOOKS IN MONTH OF APRIL

People of City Taking Full Advantage of Public Library.

Reporting to the library board at its meeting on Monday evening, Librarian Hill stated that during April 19,737 books had been loaned for home use, 14,260 on the north side and 5,477 on the south side. The total number of borrowers registered up to the end of April was 28,526. The number of new borrowers for the month was 210, which was a slight falling off for the corresponding month of last year when the number was 260.

Librarian Hill stated that great difficulty was experienced in getting book orders filled. All publishers were suffering from lack of supplies and transportation difficulties had also interfered.

U. S. EDITORS TO PAY VISIT TO EDMONTON

About 1,000 Prominent American Newspaper Men Here In July.

In July Edmonton will be visited by a party of newspaper editors from the United States which will number about one thousand persons. During that month the annual meeting of the National Editorial Association will be held in St. Paul, and, at the conclusion of the meeting, an invitation to the editors will make a tour through Western Canada, starting at Winnipeg, where they will arrive on July 17. After spending a day or two in that city, they will make a tour through Edmonton, where special preparations are being made for their reception by the Board of Trade.

It is realized that the visit of this number of influential American citizens will have a very beneficial effect on the efforts to induce settlement of a desirable class of immigrants from the United States, as they will doubtless give a great deal of valuable publicity to the conditions in this country as they find them.

BURGLARS MAKE HAUL OF MEAT

Malley's Store on 124th Street Entered and Quantity of Goods Taken

Driving up in a wagon and removing the lock off the back door of G. A. Malley's butcher shop at 10130 124th street, sometime between midnight Saturday and daylight Sunday morning, burglars made away with over $40 worth of meat, according to a statement made to the Bulletin by Mr. Malley. Wagon tracks were found Sunday morning running from Athabasca avenue to the rear door of his shop and back again.

After removing the lock, the burglars opened a refrigerator and took a hind-quarter of beef, a round of beef and some chickens. The city detectives are investigating the case.

PERSONALS

W. J. Stark, Manager of the Edmonton Exhibition, left Saturday night for Ottawa, where he will transact business for the Western Canada Fair Association, of which he is secretary. He will also complete a number of arrangements for the Edmonton Summer Fair, and will possibly visit Toronto, New York and Chicago before returning, about the end of the month.

ESCAPES FROM JAIL

William Alexander, colored, escaped from the Provincial jail at Fort Saskatchewan. It was reported to the Provincial Police on Saturday morning. Alexander had served about a year of an eighteen months' sentence on a charge of receiving stolen property.

The auction sale at Greenfield on Saturday brought together a big crowd and there was a spirited bidding. During the day the proceeds reached a total of $3,467. Mr. Greenfield acted as the auctioneer.

TENDER TOES OF AMERICAN WOMEN

Tortured with corns because of high heels, but says corns lift out.

Style decrees that women wear high-heel footwear, which buckles up the toes, producing painful corns; then many women cut at these pests, which is a most dangerous proceeding, because one is simply inviting infection or an awful death from lockjaw.

For little cost there can be obtained from any pharmacy a harmless drug called Frezzone. A quarter ounce of this is sufficient to remove every soft or hard corn or callus from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn relieves the soreness at once and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted right out without pain.

It is a sticky substance which dries in a moment and shrivels up the corn without irritating or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Here is a good thing, ladies, so pass it along to your sisters in distress.

WILL RECOMMEND REDUCTION C.N.R. EDMONTON ASSESMENT

Special Committee of City Council Holds Conference and Decides Proposal to be Presented to Council—Amount of Reduction Practically Represents Penalties Imposed For Unpaid Taxes.

That the assessment of the Canadian Northern Railway Co., for their yards on the north side, which enjoys the privilege of being assessed for school purposes only under an agreement entered into by the city, should be reduced from $67,000 to $350,000, and that outstanding arrears of $22,778, which date from 1912, should be settled by the payment of $18,609, is the recommendation of the special committee appointed to go into the matter.

At the last meeting of the council, R. R. Nichol, representing the company, appeared before council and asked if some settlement could not be arrived at with respect to the arrears of taxes, and the amount of the assessment, which was in dispute. At the present time the company pays a fixed assessment for municipal purposes on its right-of-way into the city and also municipal assessment on the south side depot, but under the original agreement, the north side yards are to be assessed for school purposes only for a period of twenty years.

The company disputes the amount of assessment, and there is an action pending against the city in connection with the question, but, Mr. Nichol said that the company would be willing to settle without going to court if possible.

A committee consisting of men Douglas, McDonald, Marti Bellamy were appointed to look into the matter and they met together the city solicitor, Assessor Wm. R. R. Nicholls.

The formal recommendation committee, which goes to a meeting of the council on Thursday afternoon, is that after having pared the assessments of the and the C.N.R. in the city, they to the conclusion that the C.N.R. on the north side, now assessed at 1916 at the sum of $18,609, should be reduced to $350,000 school purposes, conditional C.N.R. paying and settling all of taxes due to the city up to the date of the assessment on the company to have 15 days to signify their acceptance or, if accepted, payment made on or before the 15th July, 1917, and to discontinue any pending action with respect to the assessment.

The amount of reduction of arrears practically represents the penalties that have been imposed for taxes.

CAR TRAFFIC IS DELAYED FOR TIME

Street car traffic was held up for about half an hour on the south-bound track near the corner of Sutherland and Namayaw about 7 o'clock last night by car No. 57 jumping the track. The car stopped at the curb, and after being hauled back on the track continued for the rest of its time.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary multifid coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifid coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

HAVE PURE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes Pure, Rich, Red Blood.

Your heart works night and day without a pause. It is the principal organ of the circulation of your blood. It is of the utmost importance that it should do its work well. The quality and quantity of your blood have much to do with its action. If this fluid is pure and abundant, your heart and other vital organs act with more energy than when it is defective in quality or deficient in quantity.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure and abundant. It is the one reliable medicine that has been sold for forty years, for purifying the blood. There is no better blood remedy, appetizer, stomach tonic. It embodies the careful training, experience, and skill of Mr. Hood, a pharmacist for fifty years, in its quality and power to cure.

Price of tickets for the luncheon is fifty cents.

The monthly meeting of the Hamman society will be held in All Saints' school room on Tuesday, May 15th, at 8 p.m.

Under the auspices of the Wesley Mission Circle Mrs. Scouten will give a lecture on Missionary Work in Africa on Tuesday evening, May 14th at 8 o'clock in the ladies parlor of Wesley church. Mrs. Scouten will also exhibit some curios.

A special meeting of the South Edmonton Liberal Club will be held in the club rooms, Whyte avenue, next Douglas Bros. grocery store, Thursday evening, May 17th, at 8 o'clock. The program is being arranged by the ladies of the club and Mrs. Harold Feat will give an address on "The Returned Soldier." Mrs. Chester Gahner, LL.B., will preside and a cordial invitation is issued to all, especially ladies. The full program will appear later.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Wesley Church will take charge of the prayer meeting Wednesday evening. Mrs. Downie will occupy the chair. Mrs. Enright will read the scripture lesson and Mrs. Sherwin will have charge of the prayer service.

NAMAO PEOPLE PAY TRIBUTE TO DEAD HEROES

Memorial Service Is Held On Sunday Afternoon In Presbyterian Church.

A special memorial service in honor of three local soldiers was held at the Namao Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when one of the largest congregations that ever filled the church met to do honor to the memory of these heroes, who have given their lives for their country. This makes six men from the community who have died or been killed in action since the war started, and about half of the many who enlisted from the locality have been wounded. Memorial services for the others had been held previously.

Those in whose honor Sunday's service was held were: Pte. Frank Turnaway, killed in action; Pte. Bert Hardy, wounded and missing and officially declared dead; Pte. Hugh Bennett, missing, wounded, died of wounds and officially declared dead.

Frank Turnaway had attended Namao school and had made his home on the farm of W. P. Craig. W. Kelly had worked in the district for several years, and made his home at the farm of James Sutherland, who was given as his next of kin, though it was understood that he had relatives in the district. H. Bennett had been a South African veteran and had worked for some time in the Bell coal mine. Bert Hardy had worked at the mines and had harvested at the farm of Robert Bailey.

The church was appropriately decorated with flags and flowers. Special music was rendered by the choir.

Rev. W. J. Conoly, pastor of the Namao Methodist church, preached a sermon appropriate to the noble sacrifice of the departed men whose memory this was honored.

Dr. W. H. Scott of Wetaakiwin, a former teacher of the school, referred to the mingled feelings of sorrow and pride which drew the friends to this honor their departed friends.

He pointed out how the British born and the son of the alien had served and sacrificed for the cause of liberty, which they had made their own. He made special mention of his former pupil, Frank Turnaway, who had those qualities of courage, nobility and truth which had made his manhood glorious and led him to give his life for the great cause.

Dr. W. H. Scott of Wetaakiwin, a former teacher of the school, referred to the mingled feelings of sorrow and pride which drew the friends to this honor their departed friends.

BERNSTORFF MAY BE SUCCESSOR TO BETHMANN-HOLLWEG

Copenhagen, Via London, May 14.—The latest direct advices received here from Berlin confirm the impression that a vigorous campaign is being waged to bring about the downfall of Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the imperial chancellor.

The chancellor was credited with the remark that if his opponents drove him out they would only put Count von Bernstorff in his place.

The position of Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, vice-chancellor and foreign secretary, is described also as shaky.

Had Bronchitis FOR YEARS

Bronchitis comes from a neglected cold and if neglected, will surely turn into pneumonia. The first symptom is a short, painful, dry cough, accompanied with rapid wheezing and a feeling of oppression or tightness through the chest.

The phlegm raised from the bronchial tubes is at first of a light color but as the disease progresses it becomes a yellowish or greenish color and is very often hard to raise.

Dr. Wood's Norway is just the remedy you require as it loosens the phlegm and heals the lungs and bronchial tubes.

Mrs. Chas. Breen, Amherst, N.S., writes: "I was troubled for years with bronchitis, and could not find any relief. I was especially bad on a damp day. I went to a druggist and asked him for something to stop the constant tickling in my throat. He gave me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I found gave me instant relief. I think it is the best medicine for bronchitis I know of. I now take care that I always have a bottle on hand."

"Dr. Wood's" is the genuine, put up in a yellow wrapper, three pinches the trade mark, price 25c and 50c.

Ushering in the Summer Season with Sale of 1000 prs of Dorothy Dodd 'Seconds'
In Pumps, Slippers and Oxfords at $3.

WHAT better news could usher in these bright warm summer days than a sale of Dorothy Dodd seconds in pumps or oxfords. Imagine then, the commotion in this department when the doors open Tuesday A.M. and until the last pair is sold. For the opening of summer with a sale of such high grade summer footwear is very unusual, to say the least. Best Fashion has pronounced a decided preference for low shoes this season, and hosiery, skirt manufacturers have paid heed to her whims.

Look, then, for a parade of low shoe fashions such as has not been witnessed in many years, and take advantage of this opportunity to buy yours at a mere fraction of what they would ordinarily cost you.

The assortment is one of the best we have ever received from the manufacturers of this famous brand, though, of course, "seconds," the blemish is so slight that it is scarcely discernible. Every new season has introduced is represented, so it is next to impossible to attempt to describe their great variety.

Pumps, Slippers and Oxfords, in all widths. Double A and double E, all Regular up to $8.00, on Sale Tuesday, at $3.75.

TUESDAY, MAY 15, 1917.

The voters of the Province are to be given the opportunity to elect a new Legislature on June 7th. The present Legislature was elected in April, 1913. Its term does not expire by law therefore until next year. But where the legal term of a Legislature is five years, the common rule is to dissolve the House every four years, a rule so well established in practice as to give the public a right to expect an election every four years unless most unusual circumstances intervene.

The present circumstances are decidedly unusual, but unusual in a way to emphasize the need and propriety of holding to the rule, rather than to offer a reason or pretext for setting it aside. Since the present Legislature was elected the women of the Province have been given the right to vote and to become members of the House. There would be no conceivable advantage either to the women or to the Province in giving women the right to vote but denying them the chance. Immediately the women were enfranchised the existing Legislature ceased to be properly representative. In fact it represents only a fraction of one-half the qualified electors of the Province; and represents only the opinions prevailing in that fraction four years ago. That is not a condition it is desirable to prolong.

Since the members of the Legislature were chosen the people of the Province have approved by a tremendous majority the enactment of a partially prohibitory law, and it has been put into effect. The prohibition issue did not enter into the campaign of 1913 to any great extent. The present Legislature was not in any way pledged to establish prohibition, nor were the members chosen with any direct expectation that the suppression of the liquor traffic would be one of the problems they would have to deal with. The passing of the Liquor Act was a new departure. Having declared for that extent of prohibition, it is in order that the voters be given an opportunity to elect a Legislature especially instructed to see that the law is carried into effect; and also to select members who will express the present thought of the public as to whether the prohibitory policy shall be carried to the length of altogether abolishing the consumption of liquor as a beverage.

The general conditions of the Province have altered completely in the past four years. The real estate boom, then at its height, has collapsed, and has carried down many of the notions then prevalent regarding the powers, duties and responsibilities of civic life. It is needful that the changed viewpoint of the city taxpayer be recognized, and that the opinions he has formed in the school of adversity find expression in the Legislature—and hence in the law governing city and town affairs. The world war has reversed the financial outlook of four years ago,

Retrenchment is now the order of the day; and the public are entitled to send members to the Provincial Parliament who will demand the curtailment of avoidable expenditure, to the end that taxes be kept down and the credit of the province conserved for future needs. The war has likewise given a new and startling definition of the importance of the farm, and hence of the need of public measures aimed at helping the farmer to increase the output of grain, vegetables, meat animals and dairy products. In furtherance of that purpose the Provincial Government has carried on, despite the financial conditions, a policy of energetic railway construction, especially in the northern section of the Province. Whether that policy shall be continued in face of prevailing conditions is a problem the voters are properly entitled to pronounce upon. At the late session the Legislature pledged the credit of the Province to provide working capital for farmers of the Province on favorable terms. If carried into operation these acts will make the Province liable for millions of dollars in the course of the next five years. It is fitting therefore that before the liability has been assumed the electors, who will have to become responsible for the debt, be given an opportunity to say whether they approve or not. In view of these radically altered conditions, and the means which have been taken to meet some of them, it would have been an act of injustice to deny the people of the Province an opportunity to express their thought both as to the measures already adopted and as to other problems demanding attention.

A financial paper urges that if the huge profits of the munition-makers were appropriated by the state "all inducement to make munitions would be destroyed." If that is the case, then not only the profits but the factories should be expropriated. If in this time of national crisis, when everyone is called upon to sacrifice in one way or another, our munition makers are simply in it for money and to the extent to which they can make money then their money-making should certainly be put an end to.

Protectionists are telling us with great assurance that there will be no more talk of world-wide free trade after this war is ended. On the other hand, at the rate the nations are borrowing money from each other and from individuals the end of the war may find them obliged to adopt the cheapest way of paying their debts—with the things each is naturally adapted to produce the cheapest. Protection is simply a form of public extravagance, enforced for the purpose of developing certain lines of industry for which a people are not so well situated as their neighbors—or for the sake of creating a wealthy class in political affiliation with the party conceding the favor; and public extravagance is going to be mightily unpopular for a long time after this war is over. The era of real political "economy" is due to begin when the bills are totalled up and the world figures out what it has to pay.

The several Acts passed at the recent session of the Legislature for the sake of enabling the farmers to carry on operations on a larger scale and by more effective methods cannot accomplish those results unless the farmers make use of the opportunities thus offered them of securing working capital on favorable terms. The extent to which farmers will do this depends on the extent to which there is confidence among farmers that the measures offer advantages which are worth taking up. Unfortunately, some Opposition papers show a disposition to discredit these Acts, as being surrounded by conditions which make it inadvisable, or positively dangerous, for farmers to obtain loans under them. To the degree to which this mischievous misrepresentation is successful it will prevent farmers securing the loans offered, and hence prevent them enlarging their holdings, improving their homesteads, and buying stock and implements with which to do business more extensively and profitably. At a time when the world is threatened by a food scarcity, and when the cost of a life's necessities, even in this farming country, is scandalous and oppressive, it is surely poor business to engage in any sort of campaign the effect of which must be to discourage the production of food-stuffs. It is to be hoped our Opposition friends will find it possible to "carry on" without continuing this campaign against the country.

ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It reserves the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner. To receive attention, every inquiry must bear the name and address of the questioner. This information is retained for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

Wheel Question Again.

To the Bulletin—I always read with interest your column of questions and answers and congratulate you on the reliability of the information disseminated there. However, you cannot, of course, be infallible, and for the first time I believe I have detected an error in your replies.

Permit me to take exception to your answer to the question, propounded by some one, as to whether the upper half of the wheel of a moving vehicle has a greater velocity than the lower half. You state in your issue of this date that this is an optical illusion. I do not agree with you. This is an old debated question but one which may easily be determined by demonstration. Take a wheel or disc of any kind; place it on the floor or table, and mark a spot on the upper and lower edges. Now, bearing in mind the respective original positions of the two spots, in relation to stationary objects, roll the wheel about a quarter turn. You will observe that the upper spot has moved much farther from the original position than the lower. It having travelled through a greater space than the lower spot in a given length of time it must necessarily have had a greater velocity. This is true of any portion of the upper half of the wheel with relation to the corresponding part of the lower half. It does not of course apply to stationary revolving objects such as fly wheels, etc.

Probably Lump-Jaw.

To the Bulletin—Would you please answer the following questions in the column of your semi-weekly.

(1) I have two calves with lumps in their throats. These calves do not thrive well. What is the cause?

(2) A three-year-old cow had a soft lump on its chest. I opened it and found a quantity of liquid inside, and a large spongy growth. It has swollen badly. Can I burn or take this growth out without causing it to die? Will the infection I make grow together or will it need stitching?

C. J. M., Topland.

(1) Probably these calves are suffering from lump-jaw, in which case they should be kept in a dry, clean, airy place, and in most cases is almost impossible to cure.

(2) You should consult a veterinary surgeon regarding this before attempting any operation. Also show vet. the calves you speak of.

LEGAL INQUIRIES

Legal questions will be answered in the columns of The Bulletin, after being submitted to The Bulletin's legal representative, if of this is on one side of the paper only. Be brief. Send stamped envelope for reply.

Terms of Agreement.

To the Bulletin—Will you please answer the following questions in your morning paper as soon as possible.

(1) I have an agreement of sale of land. The purchaser is three years behind in his payments. It says on the agreement if payments are not made promptly, I can re-enter and take possession of land and dwellings, and agreement becomes null and void. Can I do this without going through the courts?

(2) The purchaser has been collecting the rent from above property and not remitting to me. Can I notify tenant to remit rent to me direct?

(3) If it is necessary to go through the courts which would be the quickest and cheapest way?

(4) What is a vesting order?

F. H. City.

(1) You cannot re-take the land without foreclosing the agreement, that is to say, you will have to take action against the purchaser.

(2) You had better give the tenant notice to attend to you stating in the notice that you sold the property to the purchaser and that default has been made in the payments and that you require all future payments of rent to be made to you.

(3) If the property is not worth at the present time the amount of your claim you had better bring action under the usual court procedure, that is to say, sue the purchaser under the agreement, at the expiration of order nisi applying for foreclosure. If the property is worth more than the amount of your claim it will be necessary to put the property up for sale and in this case the quickest way to bring action is under the Land Titles Act, which will enable you to put the property up for sale two months after service of notice of default upon the purchaser.

(4) A vesting order is an order of the court which vests the title to the property mentioned therein in the name of the person named therein. Upon registration at the land title office a vesting order transfers the property to the person named in the order.

INTERSECTION

Now the muttering gun-fire dies,
Now the night has cloaked the slain,
Now the stars patrol the skies,
Hear our sleepless prayer again:
They who work their country's will,
Fight and die for Britain still,
Soldiers, but not liars, know
Thou must stay friend and foe.
Therefore hear,
Both for foe and friend, our prayer,
Speed, O speed what every age
Writes with a prophetic hand,
Read the midnight moving page,
Read the stars and understand:
Out of Chaos ye shall draw
Reverend harmonies of Law
Till around the Eternal Sun
All your people move in one.
Christ—God, hear,
Both for foe and friend, our prayer.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Signing of the first contract for ship construction under the administration's billion-dollar building program was announced last night by the federal shipping board.

The contract went to the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry-dock Co. and called for the building of 1915 of eight steel vessels, each to carry 8,500 tons of cargo.

It also was announced the board is building for 2,000 tons, additional steel and wood tonnage for delivery as early as possible. Some of the wooden ships already are under construction.

The shipping board plans to have built within the next eighteen months at least 1,000 steel and wood tonnage to combat the German submarine campaign. Bills to be introduced in congress will authorize the construction of 1,000 steel vessels, each to carry 8,500 tons of cargo.

Later an additional $50,000,000 will be asked and if this is not enough still more will be sought.

THE TRICOLOR

The flag of France is blue and white and red;
Red for the blood her hero sons have shed,
White for the stainless hands they lift on high
To the blue glory of the stainless sky.

Lo, where the Marne, a sluggish serpent, winds,
The happy warriors sleep in quiet trance;
Their pure red blood a chalice cup that binds
All sons of Freedom to the flag of France.

Snow-white the wings of avions as they flit,
Daring the foe and tempting circumstance;
Snow-white their pilots' records,
All sons of Freedom to the flag of France.

One spar of blue, 'mid storm-clouds rent in twain,
Is pledged to shrouded sun's rekindling glance;
A pledge the golden seeds upon the Alsne,
For sons of Freedom and the flag of France.

The flag of France is blue and white and red;
Red for the blood her hero sons have shed,
White for the stainless hands they lift on high
To the blue glory of the stainless sky.

CANADIAN GUNS WERE BUSY FOR WEEK BEFORE VIMY ASSAULT

Edmonton Boy Gives Graphic Description of Preparation For Memorable Attack by Canadians

Lieutenant John C. Kelly, of the 7th Canadian Siege Battery, a son of Mr. John E. Kelly, 10032 116th street, in a letter to his father tells some very interesting facts concerning the battle of Vimy Ridge. His letter reads in part:

"It has been a rather busy time these last few weeks, especially during the battle of which no doubt you have read, also of how the Canadians took Vimy Ridge. It sure was a great victory and we shall have the bosche on the run. For how long, I don't know, but I expect he will make a stand within a few days.

"You don't realize what a mile means in an advance. It is a tremendous distance during a war like this, especially when you have to build roads right along and talk about traffic, it's simply unbelievable. The busiest street in London isn't as busy as the road here.

"To see the light artillery guns go over shell holes and ditches is a sight. A horse is not spared and it hurts me to see what they have to endure. The artillery stops for nothing, no matter what is in the way.

"What I have witnessed these last few weeks was grand. I never thought war would cause such sights and incidents. The advance of our troops before our guns, the attack, the battle-field (a marvel to the eye) is one big story. Being in the artillery I witnessed everything. Two hours after the battle the German prisoners began to come in hundreds.

"We arrived ahead of the battle about a week and I certainly will never forget the work of getting into action. I did not see my bed for two days and nights. We fired my gun so fast and long for miles after an hour after the attack we stopped for a while and the bore was just hot.

"The advance was so quick that within a few days we were out of range.

"After the advance I went over the battlefield. One thing I noticed was that all the shrines were not hit but the churches were destroyed."

Speaking of the attempt of the French to take Vimy Ridge—where they lost 40,000 troops, Lieut. Kelly says: "It is true for no man's land, all you see are skeletons and bits of French uniforms and they are as thick as flies for miles. However the Canadians took it with a small loss. In the dugouts of the Germans was written, 'All the soldiers from Canada will never take Vimy Ridge.'"

E. KOOTENAY PIONEER DIES

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 14.—The death occurred at St. Paul's hospital last night of Neils Hanson, of Vancouver, B. C., one of the earliest pioneers of East Kootenay, and popularly known throughout the interior as "the old man of East Kootenay."

High Man.

The Bulletin won three straight from the Hook Sign Co. last night in the Monarch five-pin league. The first game was won by the narrow margin of one pin, but the Bulletin pushed ahead, winning the second game by a good margin and the third comfortably. Bruner was the top scorer with a mark of 178 in the first game.

Is there anyone who remembers Amos (Mysterious Billy) Smith in the audience? If so, let it be known to them that this is his birthday, for the former welterweight champion was born in Eastport, Maine, on May 15, 1871. He began his fighting career on the waterfront, where he engaged the fishermen in flat encounters, that is, he engaged those who could be induced to try their luck with him. His reputation rapidly grew along the Maine "sardine coast," but suddenly he gave up his waterfront scraps to go to San Francisco, where he "took on" as a sailor before the mast. In California it was whispered around that Billy was a remittance man, that he was the scion of a noble English family. These and other reports which gained circulation led to his being nicknamed "Mysterious Billy." His first fight in San Francisco was with "Spider"

Kelly and a little later he defeated Danny Needham, Charley Gleason and several other boxers of note. Smith then went to New York and after a series of bouts defeated Tom Williamson, the Australian welterweight champion, which gained for him the title. That was in 1893. In the following year he was defeated by Tommy Ryan and later fought draws with Ryan and Joe Walcott. He was defeated by Kid McCoy and Young Corbett.

RACINE, WIS., May 15.—Pete Herman, claimant to the bantam chamampionship, won from Johnny Coulon

in the third round of their scheduled ten-round bout here last night, when the latter's manager threw a towel into the ring after Coulon had been knocked down for a count of nine.

Coulon had regained his feet, but seemingly was unable to continue the fight. He was assisted to his corner and his manager asserted that he had suffered a fractured knee cap in the fall. Later he was carried from the ring.

The knockdown resulted from a short left jab to the jaw just as the boxers came out of a clinch. Up to that time there had been little actual fighting, both men relying largely on footwork.

The weights as announced at the ring-side gave Herman an advantage of nine pounds.

The Scrap Heap

Tommy Barone Won

PITTSBURG, May 14.—Tommy Barone of Pittsburgh won on points over Johnny Ertie, of St. Paul, claimant of the bantamweight championship, in a six-round bout here tonight. Barone had the advantage in four rounds and two were even.

Pal Moore Knocked Out

BALTIMORE, May 15.—George

Chaney, of Baltimore, knocked out Pal

More, of Philadelphia, in the second round of a featherweight battle tonight.

Dillon on Defensive

DAYTON, Ohio, May 14.—Tom Mc-

Mahan and Jack Dillon fought fifteen rounds to a draw here tonight.

Dillon contented himself throughout with defensive fighting. Dillon never once opened on McMahon and during the last three rounds permitted the latter to push him around the ring at will, taking care, however, to ward off his blows.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

By Howard R. Garis

Uncle Wiggily and the Flag

Copyright, 1917, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Hip! Hip! Hurray!"
"Bang! Bang! Bang!"
"Three cheers and another one!"
Out in front of the hollow stump bungalow of Uncle Wiggily Longears, the rabbit gentleman, a crowd of boy and girl animals were shouting and cheering.
"My! My! What's it all about?" asked Dr. Possum as he came along with his bag of pills and powders on his tail, where opossums carry everything. "What has happened?"
"Uncle Wiggily has just raised a flag, on account of the war," said Johnnie Bushytail, the boy squirrel, "and we're all cheering because we're so glad we live in a flag country. We're all going to have a flag, too!"
"Fine!" cried the animal doctor. "But I didn't hear anything about a war. I've been too busy curing the Woodland folk of the epizootic, I suppose."
"You didn't hear about the war?" exclaimed surprised Sammie Littletail, the rabbit, who had cheered so hard that his pink nose was going in and out like an accordion when the circus elephant plays fast music on it.
"Why?" cried Sammie. "The mosquitoes have gone to war against us, and Uncle Wiggily has hoisted his flag to show he isn't afraid. Hip! Hip! Hurray! Bang! Bang! Shoot off the gun!"
"Ha! That's what I say, too!" exclaimed Dr. Possum. "Well, I'm not afraid of mosquitoes, either. I have, in my medicine bag, some talcum powder to shoot them, and if they bite me or any of my friends I'll put some witch hazel on the bites. Still, I'll raise a flag, too, in front of my house," and away hurried Dr. Possum to do that.
As for Uncle Wiggily, he and Nurse

Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, his muskrat lady housekeeper, looked at the red, white and blue flag as it waved in the wind on top of a pole over the hollow stump bungalow, and Uncle Wiggily took off his tall silk hat and made a low bow to the banner, for one must always salute the flag.
"Dr. Possum is going to have a flag at his house, too," said little Squeaky Eeky, the little cousin mouse. "He was just here looking at yours, and he's going to raise one, too!"
"Fine!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I must take a little walk over and see Dr. Possum's flag, and perhaps on the way, I may have an adventure—who knows?"
So, after he had seen that his flag was beautifully waving in the breeze, Uncle Wiggily taking his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch that Nurse Jane had gnawed for him out of a corn stalk, started off over the fields and through the woods to see Dr. Possum's flag.
The old rabbit gentleman had not gone very far before, all of a sudden, out from under some bushes in the forest flew a lot of enemy mosquitoes. They pitched on Uncle Wiggily, going to war against him, and biting him on his legs, his ears and even on his pink twinkling nose.
"Oh, my! What shall I do?" cried the bunny uncle, switching about with his crutch. "Help! Help! I am attacked by the mosquitoes!" and though his crutch was colored like a flag, still the mosquitoes did not fly away from it.
"Uncle Wiggily, if you will pick some of me, and rub me on your ears, nose and whiskers, the mosquitoes will let you alone."
"Will they?" And who are you that can do this?" asked the bunny.
"I am the pennyroyal plant, growing here in the woods," was the answer. "The mosquitoes do not like my perfume and run away when they smell it."
"Then they shall right soon smell it!" cried the brave bunny uncle rabbit soldier. So he picked some of the pennyroyal plant, which has a nice odor, I think, and when he had rubbed some of the leaves on his fur coat, Uncle Wiggily saw the mosquito army flying away.
"Bizz! Buzz! Bazz!" sounded the mosquito trumpet. "Back up! Retreat! Uncle Wiggily's pennyroyal is too strong for us! Come away! We cannot bite or fight him!"
So the mosquito army flew away, and Uncle Wiggily thanked the pennyroyal plant. Then, seeing some blue and white violets growing down in among the leaves, the bunny uncle picked a bouquet of them.
"I'll take the flowers to Nurse Jane after we've seen Dr. Possum's flag," said Mr. Longears. Then Uncle Wiggily saw some red flowers, growing in the woods, and he picked them also. "They will make a much better bouquet for Nurse Jane," said he.
A little while after that the bunny uncle came to Dr. Possum's house, and looking up at the pole, he expected to see a fine flag flying. But, instead, there was only some jagged strips and streamers of rags blowing in the wind.
"Why, how is this?" asked Uncle Wiggily, in surprise.
"Oh, something dreadful happened!" cried Dr. Possum. "I just hoisted a nice new flag when all at once along came a big army of mosquitoes and with their sharp bills they tore the red, white and blue banner all to pieces, leaving it ragged as you see it. And now, alas, I have no flag!"
Then he cried:
"Ha! I have it! We'll make a banner of these flowers. The blue violet will be the stars, the red and white flowers will be the stripes, and with them we'll put in some pennyroyal to keep away the mosquitoes!"
So Uncle Wiggily and Dr. Possum did this, hoisting to the top of the pole the flower flag of red, white and blue. They cried "Hurray!" as the bunch of blossoms fluttered in the breeze, and not a mosquito dared come near.
Then Uncle Wiggily hurried to the store to get a new cloth flag for Dr. Possum, and to that they also tied some pennyroyal plant so the mosquitoes had to keep away. And soon the mosquito war was over for a time. Johnnie Bushytail, the squirrel, and all the other animal boys, shooting them away with tooth powder and bean bag bullets. And merrily the flags did wave, on the homes of Doc Possum and Uncle Wiggily so brave.
And if the tooth brush doesn't shoot all its bristles at the bath room sponge like a prickly hedgehog porcupine I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily in a tent.

Sidelights on the War

Fighting Old Friends
It is, of course, only natural that during the great conflict in Europe men should be fighting against nations which, before the war, they almost regarded as a second home. The case of families fighting each other is very common, particularly among the crowned heads, who are all more or less related to each other. A rather unfortunate case is that of Pierre Loti, the famous author, whose real name is Louis Marie Julien Viaux, and who is a captain in the French navy. When the war broke out he had been on the retired list for several years, but at once offered his services to his government. He was in charge of one of the vessels which operated in the Dardanelles. Pierre Loti has just celebrated his 67th birthday. He has been one of the immortals of the French Academy for nearly a quarter of a century. It is a strange freak of fate which makes him the foe of Turkey, as he has been for long years an admirer of Turkey and the Turks, and has lived in Constantinople, which, up to the time of the outbreak of the conflict, was regarded as his second home. He has time and again defended the Moslems against the charges of atrocity and cruelty which have always been made against them. The great novelist believes that his friends the enemy were forced into an alliance with Germany much against their will, and that the day is rapidly approaching when they will repent of it. Having espoused the Teuton cause and will come over to the side of the allies. Ever since the declarations of war went back and forth across Europe Pierre Loti has been using his powerful pen to point out to the Turks the error of their ways. He entered the French navy fifty years ago and has seen service in minor campaigns. His first book was published in 1876 and, although actively engaged as a naval officer, he found time to write novels which won for him the highest honor possible to a man of letters, admission to the select company of the forty immortals of the French Academy. It was during his travels that he first learned to know and admire things Turkish. He has called Turkey his second fatherland, but when the war came he was quick to offer his services to his first fatherland, brave France.

Today's Anniversaries

Today, when we are allied with France in a common cause and recognize in her the most heroic nation in the history of the world, it is curious to look back upon a day when relations between that great nation and the United States were strained. And the fortunate part of it all is that nothing much ever resulted from these "strained relations." It is true, however, that on May 15, 1797, congress convened in extra session to consider these "strained relations." And here the other day Marshal Joffre, France's special envoy to the United States, its ally, was cheered until every body in the house, and the senate as well, were hoarse with cheering. Here are the other events that took place on May 15:
1686—Robert Ratcliffe, the first Episcopalian clergyman in England, arrived in Boston from England.
1760—The British fleet under Admiral Swanton arrived for the relief of Quebec.
1773—Prince Metternich, first prime minister of Austria, born at Coblenz.
1847—Daniel O'Connell, Irish patriot, died at Genoa, Italy.

Economical Tubes That Cost More

The economy of a tube is not to be measured by its price. Nor can it be judged alone by the length of time the tube serves you. A tube's sole purpose is to hold air, and to hold it continuously. But upon its efficiency in performing this duty depends not so much the life of the tube, but the life of the casing.

For the commonest enemy of tires is under inflation.

And slow leaks are the deadly cause of under-inflation.

Deadly because inconspicuous and insidious.

For this reason a good tube is as important as a good casing. Without good tubes, good casings are of little avail.

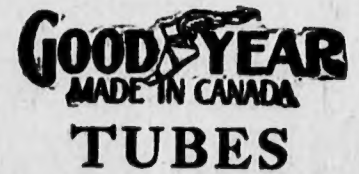

A Goodyear Tube is as important as a Goodyear Tire.

They are Laminated Tubes. They are built up thick, layer on layer, of pure, tissue-thin rubber. It is this thinness that enables us to make the rubber clean and flawless.

So they hold air better, give longer service, save tires.

It is just as easy to say "Goodyears" when you buy tubes. It is much more economical.

Alban Butler

Supposing anyone desired to take a course of reading in what is called hagiology, he might choose between the Aeta Sanctorum and Alban Butler's "Lives of the Saints." The first would be a decidedly alarming undertaking, for the "Aeta Sanctorum" occupy nearly sixty folios. The great work was commenced nearly fifty years ago by Bolland, a Belgian Jesuit. His design was to collect, under each day of the year, the saints' histories associated therewith. He got through January and February in five folios when he died in 1658. Others continued his work, and in 1762, one hundred and forty years after the appearance of January, the month of September was completed in eight volumes, making forty-seven in all. A part of October was published, but the work came to a standstill for nearly a century. It was resumed between 1840 and 1850, and was only completed toward the end of the last century. As an instance of the details into which the work goes, there are nine volumes for October, of which one alone is devoted to the 20th and 21st days of that month. The nine volumes contain as much matter as the five volumes of Macaulay's "History of England." Naturally the work is not read much outside convents.

EXPANSION OF AMERICAN ARMY IS AUTHORIZED

Washington, May 14.—Expansion of the regular army to the full war strength contemplated in the administration of President Wilson. Organization of the new regiments will begin tomorrow. About 85,000 of the 183,000 men to be added to the army already have been recruited.

BUNNY'S LITTLE BIT

This scheme of keeping rabbits to fatten them as food breaks up the kindly habits acquired in babyhood. For we, as youthful scions, were taught to love the dears and bring them dandelions and lift them by the ears.

We learned how each new litter that came to Pip or Fan Grew fatter and grew fatter. With tea-leaves in the bran; We learned which stalks were milky And which were merely tough. What grass was good for Silky And what was good for Fluff.

Such moral mild up-bringing Now makes me such distressed When little necks need wringing And little paws protest. Let wraiths from the empty hutches Should haunt me, hung in pairs, And ghosts—'tis here it touches—Of happy Belgian hares.

However, with my morals I manfully shall cope. And back my country's quarrels. But none the less I hope Before poor Bunny's taken As stuff for knife and fork The hedge-hog will be bacon. The guinea-pig be pork.
